Looking for an outsider's perspective?

Thinking about hiring a consultant?

Maybe you'd like an outside assessment of your executive team to assess what's working well and what you need to improve.

Coaching & Consulting

Working together, we can assess current situations and find the root of the problem in order to not just solve it but help prevent it in the future. While doing so, we also help make sure you don't lose sight of what is working really well so you can continue to harness that greatness as you continue to grow and evolve as a team or organization.

Services Include:

- Coaching (Individual or Pod Coaching)
- Independent investigations
- Internal assessments

About Claudia

Throughout my career as an attorney, I loved the coaching and counseling side of my job. I loved working directly with my clients, helping them solve problems creatively, coaching them through challenging situations, or even helping them understand all of the different ways they could approach what might seem like a difficult conversation with a team member or colleague.

So, I proverbially took off my lawyer hat and put on my consulting hat so that I could focus solely on building relationships to help clients prevent the problems I once helped them solve as an attorney – becoming better leaders, building better company cultures, and leading more fulfilling lives one day at a time.

Lead better. Work together.

Some of my clients are my Friends while some are strangers taking a chance based on a referral or recommendation. As with all great relationships, when there is mutual respect and trust, loyalty abounds. Let's be Friends!
